THANKS.—We thank J. H. McMANAH, clerk of the New York Stock, for late papers.

FREIGHT.—JOSEPH PATTON was yesterday charged before Esq. EAST with being drunk. As he had recently been given six dollars for a similar offence, he was this time fined three dollars.

STATIONERY.—MOSH. GRO. PATTON & Co. have laid open their new specimens of note paper on which it is a perfect luxury to write, and a package of envelopes of a most elegant style.

JOSEPH PATTON has a stock of stationery.

THE WEATHER.—A season of fine, sunny, beautiful and enjoyable days was terminated yesterday by the advent of gloomy clouds, which did not allow a glance at the face of heaven, and a rude north wind, which is in disagreeable contrast with the balmy atmosphere we have been lately enjoying.

LARGE PEAS.—WE are indebted to Mrs. ELI RAYNES, of this vicinity, for one of the largest peat gardens ever seen. It measures thirteen feet in circumference, and is about two and a half yards in diameter. Mrs. RAYNES' peat is well known, and is highly esteemed for its beauty and durability.

JOSEPH PATTON has a stock of stationery.

CHARLES RAILROAD.—WE have been informed by Col. SAM. TATE with the following figures: being the comparative receipts of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad for the months of July and August, 1857 and 1858.
